

2012-13 PHS Girls Curling Team

HOF CLASS 2025

High School Curling teams are typically not as numerous as in other sports, but it takes a great deal of dedication and talent to reach the high levels this team did. Portage High School is proud of their strong Curling program. The achievements of this team represent a significant milestone in the history of high school curling, reflecting the school's dominance in the sport and quality of the curling program. The 2012-13 First team were Conference Champions, Tietge Champions and ultimately State champions in 2013. They finished their season with a 24-0 record. The team consisted of Keagan Garrigan Buege, Lani Dubberstein, Leah Harvey and Madison Bear. The team was coached by Jim Shlimovitz. The players brought a variety of talent and personalities to play. Keagan Garrigan Buege played multiple positions. She never complained and was the ultimate team player. Lani Dubberstein had a quiet demeanor but she could make the shots. Leah Harvey always had a smile on her face and was a fierce and intelligent competitor. Madison Bear showed early on she was going to be a very good curler as she learned the game and always wanted to be the best. This team emulated what high sports was supposed to be about: Sportsmanship, always being competitive, working together for a goal and having fun.
